神煞 Symbolic Stars

These exceptional stars are named hereafter their particular character trait potential, which can be potentially positive or negative for the bearer or others who come into contact with them. The effects will always depend on the many variables of astrology e.g. quality and quantity of day master and other elements and the time and place in the chart that the star occurs.

When they come into the chart as annual year luck (or even monthly or daily) they interact with the natal chart energies during that period. Their position in the natal chart generally shows the area of interaction :

Year branch indicates effect on grandparents, parents and the family in the broader sense.

Month branch indicates an effect on the person themselves

Day branch indicates effect on their spouse or the individual's personality

Hour branch indicates effects on children or on the individual's senior year

天乙貴人 Assistance Star In a natal chart, there will be help from un-expected sources, thanks to the goddess Tian Yi. Disastrous situations can become fortunate; and in your birth chart can enable popularity. In annual luck, it can bring out promotion or more wealth.

华盖 Philosophy Star Interest in esoteric and philosophic matters. In your natal chart, it adds a hard-working and intelligent energy, although too much of this can make for conceit.

羊刃 Aggression Star Gives an underlying tendency to aggression, but can either be good or bad depending on the other energies. Often worse in a strong day master but gives more courage to a weak day master. It can affect the person or their relationships.

十干禄 Prospect Star Reinforces wealth potential, but it can be an overloading force for a strong day master. For a weak day master it is mainly positive assistance.

天德貴人 Benevolent Star Characterised by kindness, modesty, stability and down-to earth qualities; it can be a great boost to potential in a chart.

月德貴人 Kindness Star Reinforces luck in many areas of life for most charts, e.g. marriage prospects, dealing with difficult events or runs of bad luck.

桃花 Romance Star or Peach Blossom Affects emotions, desires, charisma, relationships and marriage luck and even career prospects due to the charismatic side. In some charts, it can leave the person frustrated in relationships and more concerned with sexual conquests.

文昌貴人 Study Star This is an artistic star accompanied by intelligence and often is disinterested in material gains. If it reinforces similar characteristics in the chart, it can well indicate excessive, reclusive behaviour and is common among monks, nuns and hermits.

驿馬 Horse-Travel Star The Horse star means travel, (traditionally by horseback) foreign appointments but also movement and change. If there are more than one of these stars then it could make the person restless.

將星 Commander Star This star is about leadership qualities and in the natal chart would show as authority and presence. In annual stars it can show as independence and enterprising skills.
